Re: EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST – GOVERNANCE IN SPORT – WORKING IN SPORT ESSENTIALS ONLINE COURSE – FREE TRAINING

Lead your Club to new heights with Governance in Sport - Working in Sport Essentials

Bowls NSW is calling for Expressions of Interest from Club or Zone Committee/Board members, volunteer or paid bowls administrators to undertake training in Governance in Sport through Working in Sport Essentials (WISE) — an online sports governance course provided by the Governance Institute in partnership with etrainu.

Bowls NSW recognises the importance of good governance to ensure effective decision making, and to demonstrate transparency, accountability and responsibilities across organisations.

The WISE program will give participants a broad understanding of governance in sport, using sporting examples and contexts to provide the confidence to carry out good governance practices in their role and assist with Club improvement.

WISE provides fundamental governance knowledge for anyone involved in a sports organisation, club or team, including:

- committee members and directors of sports clubs
- Managers and executives of sports organisations
- grassroots volunteers

The WISE program will provide participants with the framework and skill set to lead your club into the future.

- Online
- Seven easy to follow modules
- At your own pace and in your own time
- Supportive learning environment
- Total of 4 hours of learning time

Cost - Free - Bowls NSW is funding up to 10 participants to undertake training
